Toronto English Country Dance Assembly

Colin Hume in Toronto, June 14th to 16th, 2019

This renowned English caller, choreographer and composer will be in Toronto in his only Canadian stop on a North American tour. Colin is well known for his vast knowledge of the English Country Dance (and other!) repertoire, his reconstruction of historical dances, his original dances and tunes. He also is known for his clear and thorough teaching in workshops.

As Shandy, they combine their skills and experience with lush harmonies, elegance and energy to give dancers the best of the English Country dance experience.
